The Blind Side – MOVIES LATEST

Upon its recent release, The Blind Side, Sandra Bullock's latest vehicle, became the highest grossing female-led film of all time. The movie tells the true story of Michael Oher, a homeless teenager who becomes an American football star after being taken in by a caring woman and her family. If inspirational, underdog sporting dramas like the Oscar-winning Million Dollar Baby, Disney's The Rookie or Remember The Titans float your boat, then The Blind Side comes highly recommended. Catch this uplifting drama on board this month and read the synopsis on page 12.

Dolphin Army

TV – NATURAL WORLD

Remember The Blue Planet? A ground-breaking – and award-winning – hit back in 2001, this BBC nature series about the world's oceans paved the way for many impressive TV documentaries on marine life. Showing on board this month is a spectacular programme from the National Geographic Channel that follows one of the fastest predators in the ocean – the common dolphin. Using advanced underwater technology, we join a herd of dolphins as they journey towards the greatest feeding opportunity in the ocean – the Sardine Run along the eastern coast of South Africa. See page 27.

Kings Of Convenience

AUDIO ON DEMAND

Kings Of Convenience's latest album, Declaration Of Dependence, sees the Norwegian duo telling tales of love-gone-wrong with warm fluttering vocals. It's bitter-sweet contrasts such as these that have earned them comparisons with folk legend Nick Drake. It is deserved: their melancholy melodies are backed by chirpy rhythms, and their heavyweight lyrics are lifted by acoustic guitars. Their sound will also appeal to fans of Simon & Garfunkel or Belle & Sebastian. Declaration Of Dependence is playing on board now.

Fantastic Mr Fox – MOVIES LATEST

Of Roald Dahl's 60-plus publications, Fantastic Mr Fox is certainly one of his most popular and beloved stories. The new stop-motion animated adaptation by acclaimed indie director Wes Anderson is simply a must-see. The film tells the story of Mr Fox (voiced by the silky smooth George Clooney) and his idiosyncratic family and friends (voiced by a long list of A-listers, including Meryl Streep, Bill Murray and Owen Wilson), as they try to avoid extermination by the farmers who live above them. The film achieved universal acclaim and appeared on many critics' top 10 films lists of last year. Watch the sly fox on board this month and read the movie synopsis on page 12.
