April preview

A sneak peek at some of the new movies playing on board next month

Avatar

For those of you who didn't venture to the cinema to witness the newly crowned biggest film of all time, or for those who think that one sitting of epic interplanetary action just wasn't enough, we will be showing James Cameron's box-office behemoth next month. Twelve years after the release of Titanic, Cameron exceeded all expectations by breaking his own record with this inspired sci-fi flick about a paraplegic marine dispatched to an alien planet to infiltrate its local civilisation by using a remotely controlled alien incarnation of his twin brother. With an unprecedented use of photo-realistic motion capture and computer-generated graphics, this is one milestone of cinematic history that simply can't be missed.

Nine

Rob Marshall's latest musical extravaganza, Nine, depicts the epic mid-life crisis of famous director Guido Contini and how he struggled to balance the many women in his life. The truly all-star cast – boasting no less than seven Oscars between them – includes Daniel Day-Lewis, Penélope Cruz, Marion Cotillard, Nicole Kidman, Dame Judi Dench and the legendary Sophia Loren.

Sherlock Holmes

Robert Downey Jr dons the cap and pipe to play the eponymous Victorian detective while Jude Law fills the sideburns of his put-upon sidekick Dr Watson in this action-focused retelling by British director Guy Ritchie. Snappy dialogue, lightning-fast detective work and bare-knuckled pugilism serve as the best reasons to catch this comedy-action caper next month.

It's Complicated

Oscar darling Meryl Streep and the two hosts of this year's Academy Awards, Alec Baldwin and Steve Martin, find out that three's company in this romantic comedy of the 'mature' variety. Two former partners meet again at a family event and suddenly find themselves attracted to each other again after 10 years of divorce – so they start an affair of their own.

The Princess And The Frog

Meet Disney's newest Princess – a young, hard-working waitress from New Orleans called Tiana who, one fateful day, meets a carefree Prince called Naveen. But when they are both suddenly turned into frogs by an evil voodoo magician, they must seek the help of a trumpet-playing alligator, a Cajun firefly and an old blind lady who lives in a boat...in a tree! Wonderful family fun.
